Instructions for making Scandi advent bunting

Requirements:

- 1 x Scandi Advent Calendar 2018 panel
- 30cm (or FQ ) each of four dark co-ordinating Scandi fabrics
- 30cm (or FQ ) each of four light co-ordinating Scandi fabrics
- Fusible webbing (Bondaweb or similar)
- Red felt
- 5 metres 1" wide co-ordinating bias binding or ribbon
- Rotary cutter with pinking blade or pinking shears

The pennants are 6½" x 9¾" (cut size). Print off the template included and use to cut the pennants for the front and back fabrics.

Pennants: You will need three of each of the four light and four dark fabrics (twenty four in total) for the fronts and the same number for the backs.

Match a front and back fabric pennant, right sides together, and sew a ¼" seam along the sides and point. Leave the top edge open to be able to turn right side out. Trim away fabric on the corners. Turn and press.
Repeat for all twenty four pennants.

Motifs: Carefully cut out around the circular motifs leaving about ¼" extra beyond the dark red border of each motif. Apply fusible to the wrong side of these motifs.

Cut out the square motifs leaving at least ½" of white fabric around the outside of motifs. Apply fusible to the wrong side of these motifs.

Fuse these shapes to felt.

Using your pinking blade or shears trim the round and square motifs leaving a ¼" white edge around the squares and trimming along the edge of the dark red border of the circular motifs (no white showing).

Pockets: Cut out the pocket strips. Apply a ¼" wide strip of fusible to the wrong side top edge of the pocket strips. Turn along the fold line and fuse.

Turn under the bottom edge of the strips along the fold line. Press.

Cut the pockets apart along the cutting lines. Turn under the sides and press.

Match each motif with its pocket number and sew along the sides and bottom of the pockets.

Assembly: Pin the pocketed motifs on the 24 pennants you have made. Sew them in position along the border lines.

String the pennants together by folding the bias tape or ribbon in half and tucking the top edge of the pennants between the fold. Sew leaving a 1" gap between them.
